

New Cryptocurrency-related Markets

Less than a month after launching CFDs on Bitcoin (BTC/USD) and Ether (ETH/USD), we are adding Bitcoin Cash to the list. We are also further expanding our offering with some alternative cryptocurrency-related markets.

Bitcoin Cash

Bitcoin Cash is an offshoot (fork) of the standard Bitcoin and was created in August 2017. The main difference between the two is that Bitcoin Cash increases the block size from 1 MB to 8 MB, which allows more transactions to be processed.

You can now take both long and short positions in CFDs on Bitcoin Cash USD (BCH/USD) and miniBitcoin Cash USD (miniBCH/USD) at 20% margin and no commissions, with a $15 target spread on BCH/USD, and $2 on miniBCH/USD.

Bitcoin and Ether ETNs

An Exchange Traded Note (ETN) is a security listed on a stock exchange, which can be traded like the shares of other companies.

The Bitcoin Tracker-SEK (BITCOINETN/se) and Ether Tracker-SEK (ETHERETN/se) are traded on the Nasdaq OMX Stockholm Exchange and are designed to track the movements of Bitcoin and Ether, respectively, against the euro. The new ETN CFDs are offered at 25% margin and also as Cash CFDs at 100% margin.

Shares of Bitcoin Group

Bitcoin Group SE (ADE/g) is a company focused on innovative business models and technologies in the cryptocurrency and blockchain fields. It holds 100% of the shares of Bitcoin Deutschland AG, which operates the only platform authorised in Germany for trading the Bitcoin. You can trade Bitcoin Group Share CFDs at 10% margin and Cash CFDs at 100% margin.
